NOTE FOR: Carl

25X1A

1. Regarding active military officers wearing ribbons representing Agency awards -- immediately upon return [] wrote an aide-mémoire for Admiral Taylor and soon thereafter mentioned it to Colonel White. Colonel White's response was "Why should we bother to try to obtain authorization for active military people to wear our ribbons when our own people can't wear them?" And there it hangs.

2. Regarding [] certificate that has remained only in [] desk -- only he, his secretary, and the group yesterday have seen it. He is aware of the possible sensitivity. I told Bob he might anticipate a query from John P. about custody of this award shifting to [] said that he and [] had had some conversations some time ago about this sort of thing, and he'd review what our procedures had been in the past.
